PERSONAL PIANO CATALOGUE 2012/2013 – BLACK AND WHITE AND FULL OF COLOUR

That's our world of music. The expressive sounds of our Personal Pianos bring colour into your music delivering a wealth of options and tonal variations to suit any environment.

Yamaha digital pianos are based on over 100 years of crafting fine acoustic instruments. And, because Yamaha are leaders in the field of digital audio technology, this fine range of instruments benefits from a combination of skills no other company can offer.

As manufacturers of some of the world's leading concert grand pianos, our standards are high. We simply couldn't contemplate settling for second best.

No matter which model you choose, it will deliver a remarkably authentic piano sound. Each features a full-size, 88-note weighted keyboard, a powerful sound system and a wide range of functions. And every Personal Piano includes a built-in headphone socket to facilitate silent practice.

PORTABLE

Our Portable instruments combine astonishingly accurate piano sound quality with easy portability in a single instrument. Light and compact, yet feeling like an acoustic instrument to the touch, they are perfect for the musician on the move who demands real piano performance as well as all the flexibility that comes with a digital one.

THE SOUND OF FUN

Rock as a pianist with your own backing band, play a concerto with supporting orchestra or play a beautiful solo sonata – all these things are possible with a single instrument. These Versatile models feature the multiple voices and accompaniment styles of a keyboard with the touch and sound of a piano.

YDP-V240

MUSICAL ALL-ROUNDER WITH A PIANO AT ITS HEART

At first sight the YDP-V240 looks like a classic digital piano. And it sounds like one too. Thanks to Stereo-sampling it captivates with its authentic sound. And the Graded Hammer Standard keyboard means it plays as easily and expressively as a real piano – more weighted in the bass range, easier in the treble.

But the biggest and most powerful model of the ARIUS series does so much more. On board is all the versatility of a high-end keyboard opening up opportunities in numerous musical genres including Jazz, Rock and Pop with its multiple instrument voices. In fact, with over 500 different voices and 160 accompaniment styles, it puts whole orchestras and bands at your disposal and puts you firmly at the centre of the stage.

DGX-640

THE PERFECT BLEND OF KEYBOARD AND PIANO

Orchestra, jazz combo, rock band – or just a brilliant sounding piano, DGX-640 is all of these. Because it combines the advantages of a keyboard with those of a digital piano the result is greater than the sum of its parts.

Over 530 voices and more than 160 different accompaniment styles deliver all the major musical variety of a keyboard. Yet a digital piano is always at hand which, thanks to the graded hammer standard keyboard, can be played like a real acoustic piano; heavier weighting in the bass range, lighter in the treble. The four Live!Voices offer you a range of different piano sounds: from the realistic Grand piano through the Pop Grand and Warm pianos to the modern Ambient Piano. What's more, intelligent automatic accompaniments using AI-technology make light work of even the most complex bass lines.
